Online Manual and Exam Self-Registration Instructions

The revised Fundamentals of Fetal Health Surveillance (FHS) and the NEW FHS Refresher Programs contain the following components:

1) Review of the Fundamentals of Fetal Health Surveillance – A Self-Learning Manual (available online)

2) Successful Completion of the Canadian FHS Online Exam

To assist you in completing the online exam requirements, please note the following:

- Once paid for, you will have unlimited attempts to successfully complete the online exam.
- Cost of the exam is $30.00CDN and can be paid online using a valid credit card. See your local FHS contact to verify if bulk FHS exam access codes have been purchased by your facility or health region.
- The exam must be successfully completed within 30 days of your in-person workshop.
- You must provide a copy of your Certificate of Completion to your FHS Instructor prior to, or on the day of the in-person workshop (based on your Instructors preferences).

3) Attendance at an In-person Canadian Fetal Health Surveillance Educational Program Workshop

This part of the programs is led by a FHS Instructor and focuses on practical skills and integrates the cognitive, behavioural skills needed to work in a team setting providing intrapartum FHS. The two FHS programs offered include the Fundamentals of FHS Workshop, which is an 8 hour workshop for beginners and novice health care providers who are new to intrapartum fetal monitoring or those who are interested in a more in depth FHS workshop; the FHS Refresher Program workshops are meant for clinicians in practice who have several years of experience in FHS including various methods of monitoring, fetal heart rate interpretation and clinical situation evaluation; the length of Refresher Courses will vary by institution.

Please note: In-person workshop attendance is incumbent upon successful completion of the online exam. Please do not hesitate to contact your FHS Workshop Instructor should you have any questions.
